Registering for Classes

Using the course descriptions and daily schedule, list your class choices below. All choirs meet for two sessions each day. Your class choices will be accommodated as available at the time your registration is received. Indicate which level of handbells you desire and/or which instrument you will bring if auditioning for an ensemble.

There is no pre-registration for Chamber Choirs or Instrumental Ensembles for Sr. High – Adults. If you wish to audition for one of these, you may register for alternate classes in case you are not selected for the auditioned group. Audition results will be posted early Monday morning. If selected, your schedule will be adjusted accordingly.

Adult/Young Adult Classes – Choose classes to fill a maximum of 7 time periods. Note that Adult Choir or Senior High Choir will fill 2 periods each day.

Senior High Classes – choose up to 4 electives in addition to Choir and Bible.

Middler Classes – choose up to 2 electives in addition to Choir, Bible, and Fun & Games. Middlers do not have 4:30 classes.

Children's Classes – choose up to 2 electives in addition to Choir, Bible, and Fun & Games. Children do not have 4:30 classes.
