*OPENING SENTENCES

PSALM 150

Hallelujah! Praise God in the holy temple;
Praise God in the mighty firmament.

Praise God for mighty acts;
praise God for exceeding greatness.

Praise God with trumpet sound;
Praise God with lyre and harp.

Praise God with tambourine and dance;
Praise God with loud clanging cymbals.

Let everything that has breath praise the Lord.
Hallelujah!

Landry J. Duvall serves as the Director of Music and Organist at Idlewild Presbyterian Church in Memphis, where he directs an array of ensembles including music for children, handbells, and the Chancel Choir. He is also the principal organist for Sunday morning worship services and presents occasional recital programs. Under his guidance, the church's music ministry has flourished, attracting a vibrant and committed community of participants. Mr. Duvall has served churches in Tennessee, Texas, and Virginia.

A native Tennessean, Mr. Duvall earned his Master of Music Degree in Church Music and Choral Conducting from Baylor University in 2015, where he served as Graduate Assistant Conductor to the Baylor University Concert Choir and Baylor Bella Voce Select Women's Ensemble. He also holds a Bachelor of Music Degree in Church Music and Organ from Carson-Newman University near Knoxville, Tennessee.

Mr. Duvall is a proud member of The Presbyterian Association of Musicians and serves as the Vice President of the Mid-South Regional Leadership. Additionally, he is a member of the American Choral Directors Association, The American Guild of Organists, Handbell Musicians of America, and Delta Omicron International Honors Music Fraternity.

Patrick A. Scott is Director of Music & Organist at Grace-St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Memphis, TN. A native of Picayune, Mississippi, he holds a Bachelor of Music degree in Organ Performance from Birmingham-Southern College where he studied with Dr. James Cook. As a student of Drs. Judith and Gerre Hancock, Patrick earned a Master of Music in Organ Performance and Sacred Music and a Doctor of Musical Arts in Organ Performance, both from the University of Texas at Austin.

Dr. Scott is recognized as one of the nation's prominent organists of his generation having won both the first prize and the audience prize in the American Guild of Organists National Competition in Organ Improvisation in Boston in 2014. At the same convention, he was also awarded second prize in the Schoenstein Hymn-Playing Competition. He has been named one of the top 20 leaders and organists under the age of 30 by The Diapason magazine. He has recorded CDs under the Raven and Gothic labels with the cathedral choirs of St. Philip Atlanta and as soloist on the Æolean-Skinner organ of Providence United Methodist Church in Charlotte, NC, the organ formerly at the Kennedy Center in Washington DC. He has presented recitals, workshops, hymn festivals, and masterclasses for chapters and conventions of the American Guild of Organists, the Organ Historical Society, the American Choral Directors Association, the Royal School of Church Music, and the Presbyterian Association of Musicians Montreat Conference.

An active recitalist and accompanist, Dr. Scott has appeared in concert and with choirs throughout the United States, as well as in France, Scotland, England, and Ireland. Prior to his appointment at GSL, Patrick served churches in Atlanta, Charlotte, Austin, and Tuscaloosa.
